Date 16 March 2022

PART I

1. Background and Advice

- 1.1. The Conservative Party Conference is being held in Blackpool between 14-19 March 2022.
- 1.2. The policing of the conference will give rise to a special demand on the resources of Lancashire Police due to the need for large-scale deployment of officers.
- 1.3. To assist the Chief Constable of Lancashire with the policing of the Conference assistance is being sought from the Civil Nuclear Constabulary for the provision of 2 Explosive Detection Dogs and Handlers.
- 1.4. The Conservative Party Conference Resources will be deployed to Blackpool from the 15 March 2022 date until to 17 March 2022 inclusive. These dates may be amended by agreement in writing between the Chief Constable of Lancashire Constabulary and the Chief Constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary.

2. Links to the Police and Crime Plan

- 2.1. CNC officers will be deployed under the direction and control of the Chief Constable of Lancashire in the interests of the efficiency or effectiveness.

3. Consultation

- 3.1. N/A

4. Implications

4.1. Risks

- 4.1.1. There are no identified risks.
- 4.1.2. This Agreement will terminate on the 19 March 2022 at 23:59hrs

4.2. Legal

5. The Police and Crime Commissioner for Lancashire has the power under Section 23 of the Police Act 1996 to make this decision to enter into a collaborative agreement.
6. Section 22A of the Police Act 1996 requires the parties to a force collaboration agreement to include each Chief Constable and each policing body. The Agreement has been drawn up to comply with the provisions of the Police Act 1996 in respect of a collaboration agreement.
7. There are no legal issues arising from the Agreement.

7.1. Financial

- 7.1.1. The costs associated with the provision of the resources from the Civil Nuclear Constabulary have already been factored into the cost of policing the Conservative Party Conference.

7.2. Equality considerations
